

SUPPORTING VISUAL ARTS

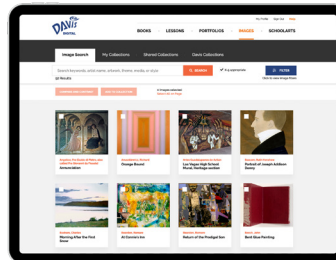

IN THE GAP YEARS

Get the materials you need for the upcoming school years.

Take advantage of existing funding to support your Visual Arts program through the GAP years.

The Davis Digital platform offers art educators a wealth of material and resources to help fully engage students. Since the 2015 adoption Davis Digital has been continuously enhanced, offering users immediate access to new and improved features and functionality. Davis Digital provides:

- eBooks: Teachers and students have full access to the same engaging content and images found in the print books anywhere with an internet connection.
- Davis Art Images: More than 20,000 digital fine art images from around the globe and across time. View independently of the eBook and enlarge to 300%.
- Lessons: A lesson planning and presentation tool that provides lesson plans and allows you to gather the content you need in one place.
- Portfolios: Teachers and students can create online portfolios to share work and important information with parents, classmates, and colleagues.
- Student Accounts: Flexible licensing options to meet the needs of your program.

DID YOU KNOW...

STAR The writing portion of the STAAR is embedded in each content area? YES, EVEN ART! Davis programs are filled with writing opportunities! You'll find a plethora of activities throughout the thematic lessons as well as in the artmaking activities. These writing prompts provide ways to build vocabulary, reflect, and investigate ideas.

Davis programs are packed with student art examples to inspire students and provide a safe model for peer review.

Teacher Editions provide a wealth of information and guidance on addressing the varying needs of student populations, including support for English learners and Spanish speakers.
