

Contents

Introduction 2

Chapter 1 Creating a Philosophical Framework 4

- Building Your Own Foundation 5
- Using Narrative Accounts 6
- Conducting an Initial Assessment 7

Chapter 2 Collaborating with a Learning Community 8

- Making Connections 9
- Collaboration 11
- Starting Conversations 13

Chapter 3 Sensory Stimulation 16

- Sensory Processing Disorder 17
- Creating Art 21
- Connecting to Art 27
- Responding to Art 29
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 31
- Turning Failure into Success 32
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 32

Chapter 4 Low Muscle Tone (Hypotonia) 34

- Creating Art 35
- Connecting to Art 41
- Responding to Art 45
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 46
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 48

Chapter 5 Visual Impairments 50

- Types of Visual Impairment 51
- Creating Art 52
- Connecting to Art 61
- Responding to Art 63
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 64
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 66

Chapter 6 Gross Motor Impairments 68

- Creating Art 69
- Connecting to Art 78
- Responding to Art 79
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 81
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 82

Chapter 7
Fine Motor Delays 84

- Creating Art 87
- Connecting to Art 92
- Responding to Art 94
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 95
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 96

Chapter 8
Intellectual Disabilities 98

- Meaningful Adaptations 100
- Creating Art 102
- Connecting to Art 110
- Responding to Art 111
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 112
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 113

Chapter 9
Hearing Loss 114

- Making Your Classroom Comfortable for All Learners 116
- Creating Art 118
- Connecting to Art 121
- Responding to Art 122
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 124
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 125

Chapter 10
Emotional and Behavioral Disabilities 126

- Understanding Your Students 127
- Preventive Planning 128
- Creating Art 129
- Connecting to Art 133
- Responding to Art 134
- Presenting Art and Ideas about Art 135
- Adaptive Benefits for All Students 136

Chapter 11
Final Thoughts 138